

II Corinthians 5:1-10

I. Here are the details of this passage.

- A. Paul uses the analogy of _____ to illustrate our life on this earth compared with our future life in Heaven. V.1
- B. There is a _____ to living here on earth. V.1-3
- C. The proof that we have a permanent place in heaven is the _____ given to us as a deposit guaranteeing what is to come. V.5

II Corinthians 1:21-22; Ephesians 1:13-14

- D. We are living in a place where we are _____ from God. V.6
- E. We must choose to live our life here _____ by the fact that someday we will be with God and what we do here matters. V.7-10

II. What can we learn from this?

- A. We must not make living here longer our number one _____.
- B. We must realize that stability apart from the promises of God is a _____.
- C. We must surrender to the _____ of the Holy Spirit.
- D. Living our life here for an _____ is what it means to walk by faith.