

6/6/2021

The Proverbs Series

Metaphors of Truth

Pastor Ken Sistrunk

I. Here are the details of this passage.

- A. We have the ability to bring _____ to others through our actions. V. 20
- B. God will reward us if we refuse to continue hostilities toward an enemy and instead _____ them. V. 21-22
- C. We must refuse to use our _____ to hurt others. V. 23
- D. We must not seek out _____. V. 24
- E. We must _____ others with good news. V. 25
- F. We hurt _____ when we give way to wickedness. V. 26
- G. Seeking self-glory _____ ends well. V. 27
- H. A lack of control on one's temper leaves us _____ to attack. V. 28

II. How can we apply these truths?

- A. Find someone who has a _____ and pray for ways to encourage them.
- B. Make a list of those who consider you an _____ and pray for them. If an opportunity arises to bless them, do it.
- C. Acknowledge that our tongues have hurt people and seek ways to _____ relationships.
- D. We need to learn ways to communicate our _____ that do not hurt others.
- E. Our message about Christ must be communicated as _____.
- F. We must never let others dictate our _____.
- G. We should accept praise from others with _____ and we should never demand praise.
- H. Dealing with _____ is a great way to control our temper.