

7/18/2021

The Proverbs Series

The Gift of Humility

Pastor Ken Sistrunk

Proverbs 30:1-9

I. Here are the details of this passage.

- A. It was _____ by someone claiming to be Agur son of Jakeh. V.1a
- B. The writer was _____. V. 1b
- C. The writer was a _____ man. V. 2-3
- D. The writer has a proper perspective of the _____ one. V. 4
- E. The writer had a deep respect for the _____ of God. V. 5-6
- F. The writer wanted _____ from God for the words that came out his lips. V. 8b
- G. The writer wanted only his _____ to be met. V. 8b
- H. The writer was concerned only with his _____ before God. V. 9

II. What can we learn from this passage?

- A. We will discover that if we _____ we can accomplish more than if we are concerned with getting credit for what we do.
- B. We can accomplish more if we are not doing it on our own strength but rather on the _____.
- C. A God centered worldview has _____ potential. A man centered worldview is destructive and limited.
- D. Living by God's word keeps us _____ and on task.
- E. We need to limit our words to only wholesome and edifying speech. Trust God to speak _____ you.
- F. We must live for an audience of _____.