The Resurrection From The Dead #3: Bad Company

Pastor Ken Sistrunk

I Corinthians 15:26-34

I. Here are the details of this passage.

- A. _____ is an enemy of God and is also our enemy. Someday this enemy will be totally destroyed. V. 26
- B. Christ has been given total _____ but someday Christ will give all of this _____ back to the Father. V. 27-28
- C. Some in the early church had been teaching that there is no _____ from the dead. V. 29
- D. This seems to contradict a non-biblical _____ that they had in Corinth of baptizing for the dead. V. 29
- E. If there is no resurrection from the dead then why bother with _____ God? V. 30-32
- F. We must be careful to whom we are _____. V. 33-34

II. How can we apply these truths?

- A. We must _____ living in fear of death. It is an enemy who will be soon defeated by Jesus Christ!
- B. The mystery of the _____ must remain a cornerstone of our belief system. It makes perfect sense that an uncreated God would be different from anything that we could understand.
- C. We must dig out our _____ that contradict Scripture. All of us have some of these and they prevent us from bearing the fruit that God has for us.
- D. We must implore those within our realm of _____ to receive Christ while they are still living. There is no second chance after death.
- E. We must stop listening to teaching that contradict Scripture. We must be _____ as to what the Bible actually says.
