

Final Words

I Corinthians 16:10-24

I. Here are some of the final thoughts that Paul wanted to communicate to the church in Corinth.

- A. The church should _____ for and treat with _____ the workers that God has brought to them. V. 10-11, 15-21
- B. The church needs to show Godly _____ in these tough times.
 - 1. They must be _____. V. 13
 - 2. They must _____ what they believe. V. 13
 - 3. They must be people of _____. V. 13
 - 4. They must be _____ in their moral convictions. V. 14
 - 5. _____ must be their guiding principle. V. 14
- C. The church must love God with _____ that they have. V. 22
- D. The church must desire to have Jesus Christ _____. V. 22
- E. The church must be dispensers of God's _____. V. 23

II. How can we apply these final thoughts to our lives now?

- A. We need to ask God for ways to encourage, provide for and to pray for the _____ of ministries that God has brought our way.
- B. We need to know what is happening around us. We should _____ to the news but not be consumed by it.
- C. We must know what _____ tells us.
- D. We must hold to the _____ that Scripture commands us to have.
- E. _____ love has got to be our defining characteristic.
- F. We must _____ fearing the apocalypse. We must eagerly await it. I Corinthians 1:7
- G. We must stop apologizing for _____ in grace. The self-righteous will always oppose grace. We cannot change our belief in grace for their sake.