An Angry Messiah

Mark 3:1-6; 11:15-18

- I. Here are two examples in which Jesus became _____. Here are some of the commonalities in these two examples.
 - A. Both examples have someone who is being _____ treated. The man with a shriveled hand and the Gentiles who came to hear God's word taught in the temple. Mark 3:4; 11:17
 - B. Both examples included people who should have known _____. Mark 3:6; 11:18
 - C. The action Jesus took was to bring _____ to those who were unfairly treated. Mark 3:5-6; 11:15-17
 - D. The hard hearted didn't listen to Jesus, they instead turned their _____ upon Him. He never retaliated against this! Father forgive them, they know not what they do. Mark 3:6; 11:18
- II. What simple truths can we take away from this lesson?
 - A. God's anger always has a _____ quality for His children.
I Corinthians 11:32, Hebrews 12:5-8
 - B. We must _____ our anger triggers to what makes Him angry and leave room for the "transgressor" to be redeemed.
