

Thanksgiving Message
Spontaneous Thanksgiving

Psalm 100

Intro: This Psalm is a _____ Psalm. These are defined in Psalm 50:23. The description of this type of offering is described in Leviticus 7:11-17 and was in the category of Peace Offerings. The main emphasis of _____ was that it was to be spontaneous.

- I. The Psalm begins with a _____ welcome. V. 1
 - A. The _____ is the uncreated One. V. 1 (_____)
 - B. The audience is the whole _____. V. 1
- II. This type of offering had _____ associated with it.
 - A. The offering was a joyful _____. V. 2
 - B. The offering was accompanied by joyful _____. V. 2
 - C. The offering was offered with an accurate view of who _____ is. V. 3, 5
 - D. The offering was made in the holy _____ in Jerusalem. V. 4
 - E. The offering was made with _____ and _____. V. 4
- III. Here are a few thoughts on the application of this to our lives.
 - A. Our _____ service can have this kind of joy.
 - B. Offering up our _____ as a living sacrifice is how we sacrifice now.
Romans 12:1-2
 - C. Our _____ can be spontaneous, emotional, and personal. Our worship can also be organized, reverent, and rehearsed. James 5:13